

OSHA Exam

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. It is important to wash your hands before and after each patient contact. True False
2. Body fluids that may be infectious include blood, vaginal fluids, semen and saliva. True False
3. You should try moving heavy patients yourself before asking for help. True False
4. Any device that stalls or sparks should be reported immediately. True False
5. All exits should be well lit and clearly marked. True False
6. Faulty electrical equipment can cause fires. True False
7. Any mask is acceptable when caring for patients suspected or known to have TB disease. True False
8. Gloves are needed only if you'll be exposed to blood. True False
9. Sharps should be disposed of in an approved container immediately after use. True False
10. Universal precautions mean treating everyone's blood and other body fluids as infectious. True False